SPECIAL STUDENT APPLICATION

MALS courses normally are open only to students formally enrolled in the program. Individuals with an undergraduate degree who wish to sample a MALS course one time only, however, may apply to enroll in a specific class. Credit for the course may be applied later to the MALS degree requirements. Please complete this application and send it, along with a non-refundable $75 application fee, to the MALS Office. (If you apply as a degree-seeking student to the MALS program within two years of taking a MALS course, the later application fee will be waived.) In addition, please send official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate work to the MALS Office. An interview with the director of the program also is required. The application should be filed at least 30 days before the start of the desired seminar.

First preference for enrollment in a MALS course is given to degree-seeking students.
